SPORTS

DARING CHAUFFEUR MAKES BIG MONEY

BARNEY OLDFIELD WAS GETTING BARE LIVING BUT NOW MAKES THOUSANDS EACH YEAR.

From a bare living salary of $500 per year to figures which compare with the salary of the president of the United States, Barney Oldfield has certainly made a great jump in financial earnings.

The intrepid chauffeur admits that he was making only $500 a year in 1901, says an exchange. At that time he was doing odd jobs and there were times when he was short the necessary cash for meals.

"There were times when I was nearly starved," said Oldfield, "and there were times when a dime looked as big as a barn to me." This was in 1901.

Since then Oldfield has become an adept at the auto game. Getting a start with Tom Cooper and Henry Ford, Oldfield, year after year, has increased his earning capacity. It was in 1901 that Oldfield was working for Cooper at mere living expenses. Today Cooper is working for Oldfield, watching the chauffeur's interests in the theatrical line. Barney Oldfield draws his royalties from the "Vanderbilt cup race," which proved such a big success down East.

For this year, and the season is a little more than half over, Oldfield has made over $30,000. He expects to see his earnings reach the $50,000 mark before the snow flies.

Barney has been saving some of this. He owns a big farm near Toledo, Ohio, and several houses. At the same time he squanders his money freely and is a lavish entertainer. With the money coming as easily as it does, Barney has no intention of quitting the sport which requires him to face death—almost—a half dozen times a day.

TWO FAMOUS PACERS MAY BE MATCHED

EFFORTS BEING MADE TO MATCH THE BRONCHO AND DAN PATCH—GREAT INTEREST SHOWN.

Efforts are now being made to bring together the two greatest pacers the turf has ever known in Dan Patch and The Broncho. The sensational performances of these two wonderful animals have been the talk of the turf world this season, and men who are interested in harness horses are anxious to see the two meet in a match race for the world's record for straight heats, and it would surely knock all other records into smithereens. The younger horse, on time figures, would be expected to pose as the long shot, and would stimulate the veteran to his best work if he could meet him in an actual race.

JUNIOR BALL.

The baseball game played at Kapalama Park on Sunday between the Kaialas and Standards was won by the latter by the score of 2 to 1.

News came to Honolulu yesterday

AH SIN IS A WANDERING JEW

CLAIMS MANY PLACES AS HIS ABODE BUT POLICE CAN NOT LOCATE HIS REAL LAIR.

Ah Sin is like the Wandering Jew. He has no settled place of abode—at least no place that the police have yet succeeded in locating. The authorities are especially anxious to find his living quarters, for they believe that a search of them may locate some of the numerous goods stolen from various Japanese and other quarters about the city.

Sin was caught by the Japanese at Mrs. Castle's Manoa Valley residence

GOSSIP FROM THE ROPED ARENA

SPECULATION AS TO THE NEXT OPPONENT FOR JOE GANS—HE MAY FIGHT NELSON AGAIN.

Tex Rickard, who recently made an offer of a $25,000 purse for a match at Goldfield on Christmas day between Joe Gans and Jimmy Britt seems to have changed his mind and is now putting forth his best endeavors to arrange a match between Gans and Battling Nelson.

Of course the Dane and his manager are willing and they are putting up money—some people say it is stage money—for any old kind of a chance at the colored boy. Rickard wants the two to meet in Goldfield next February or March. Nelson would like a match before that time, but the colored boy is not likely to consent.

Rickard is also said to have made the assertion that there is now no middleweight among the white fighters who can stand up to the Dane for ten rounds and he would offer $10,000 for the match. There are plenty of men who would like to have a try at that purse, but the probability is that Rickard was in a joking mood when he made the offer. He was naturally looking for some advertising for a return Gans-Nelson scrap, and took this means of getting the stock of the Dane boosted a bit.

Joe Gans is to fight Philadelphia Jack O'Brien in the Quaker City in December. The bout will only last six rounds and no decision will be given. This little exhibition was practically arranged some time previous to the recent scrap in Nevada.

Kid Herman is being talked of by the Eastern critics as a fighter who is likely to have the first chance at Gans. Herman is said to have some of Jimmy Britt's cleverness and considerable more of a punch than James Edward.

Sam Berger was very anxious a few weeks ago to arrange another match with Jack O'Brien. When O'Brien arrived in San Francisco to complete the arrangements for the bout, the big fellow seemed to have an attack of marble feet and the articles were not signed. O'Brien will likely take on a match with Tommy Burns when he returns from Australia where he is going to meet Bill Squires.

The moving pictures of the Gans-Nelson fight have been shown at San Francisco and they are reported to be very good. Unfortunately Gans had his back to the camera when the foul blow was struck in the forty-second round and the pictures do not depict the foul blow, but they show very clearly what happened afterwards. Considering that the pictures of the final rounds were taken after 6 o'clock in the evening they are exceptionally good.

NELSON'S BROTHER IS IN COLLEGE

BATTLING NELSON WHO FOUGHT GANS AT GOLDFIELD RECENTLY IS EDUCATING HIS BROTHER.

With all the opprobrium that has been heaped upon Nelson and Nolan lately there is one refreshing fact that has come to light as a result of "Battling's" defeat. There is a Charles H. Nelson on the register of the freshman class at the University of California, and his excitement while watching the returns of the fight led to the discovery that he was a brother of the great lightweight. Nelson wanted his younger brother to be a physician, and took him West a year ago. He himself selected an college and is paying all the expenses. His brother will take a two years' course at Berkeley and then four years in the affiliated colleges in San Francisco.

Afternoon that the championship of the Hilo Baseball League had been won by the Mooheaus, which defeated the Beamer Specials in the deciding game on Sunday.

BOUGHT THE GLADYS.

A syndicate composed of Thomas King, William King, Bert Petrie and Alfred Carter have purchased the yacht Gladys from T. W. Hobron for $1250. The vessel which is the champion yacht in these waters, originally cost $2,000 in San Francisco. She was built about 8 years ago and was at one time the property of Oscar White.

yesterday and given into the custody of the police. Ah Sin was then in the act, it is alleged, of rifling the servant's quarters for articles of value.

Ah Sin first claimed to the police that he worked for W. Crawford. But that employment was so remote that Sin is but a memory at the Crawford place. Then Sin claimed that he lived with a relative up Manoa Valley. Search disclosed the fact that Sin had not lived in that vicinity for months. Then he claimed he lived on Hotel street. A diligent search is now in progress to locate his room. The police will not formally charge the defendant yet until they have had further time in which to investigate the suspicions against him.

Incidentally Ah Sin has a record. The police assert that he has served time before in the Oahu prison. But High Sheriff Henry did not evidently consider his release from prison of sufficient consequence to notify the police department.

MANSLAUGHTER IN SECOND DEGREE

THE VERDICT AGAINST GEORGE WAINEE, WITH A RECOMMENDATION TO MERCY.

Manslaughter in the second degree, with a recommendation to the mercy of the court, was the verdict last night in the George Wainee murder case. The jury was out about three hours and returned at about 8:50. The charge against Wainee was that of killing a woman named Kaili, his wife or paramour, by a beating he gave her on June 9.

Kingsbury's argument for the defense occupied all yesterday morning and about half the afternoon. Prosser closed for the defense and Judge De Bolt charged the jury before dinner.

The trial lasted about two weeks. Deputy Attorney General Prosser, assisted by Chester Doyle, prosecuted and S. B. Kingsbury, W. T. Rawlins and R. B. Anderson defended.

SAILOR DIED YESTERDAY.

Robert Schroder, late gunner's mate in the navy, died at his home yesterday morning and was buried at Pearl City cemetery in the afternoon. Gilbert J. Waller conducted the services. The funeral was attended by sailors from the U. S. S. Iroquois. The deceased served aboard the Iroquois. Two years ago his health broke down and he was sent to the Mare Island Hospital. Later he was returned to Honolulu. He leaves a widow.
